

I am writting to say I oppose the weakening of Indiana Law by the Consumer Bankers Association with the challenge they have submited to you attempting to impose the federal established business relationship exemption on Indiana's telephone privacy law.